By Mr. Vowler's Letter to Mr. C. Taylor, Dec. 22. 1716. this further Account of the State of Devonshire.

In ~~Devon~~ Exeter one Low-Churchman only to 3 Dissenters. The Votes of Dissenters in Elections more than two to one of y^e L.C.. And y^e Low-Church never undertook to bear above an eighth of y^e Charges at any publick Election, the Dissenters advancing the other 7 parts.

On y^e Choice of 40 Guardians for y^e new Hospitall erected in that City An. 1700. when the Law directed y^t every Voter should pay 2^d. a week in their own right to y^e poor; y^e Whig-Interest carried every Member. Nor could the High-Church with their utmost Efforts reach above half-way in any of the 4 Wards, to the Votes by which y^e lowest Guardian was chosen.

The Burrough-Towns, where his Majesty has any friends chosen, have that Interest chiefly Supported by y^e Dissenters; as at Plimouth, Plympton, Tavistock, Ashburton, Honiton, Tiverton, &c.

In y^e County they are supposd to be about one 6^th. of y^e Freeholders.

Not less than 20 Dissenters of Estates & Ability, ~~of~~ to serve in the Commission of y^e Peace.

Many of those reckond among Low-Church were formerly Dissenters, & desirous to return again to them.

The Influence of Trading Dissenters very extensive over their Dependants in Business.

Nem. [N.] [S.] or [E.] just under y^e Names of y^e Places of Meeting in this County, imports, that that Place belongs either to the Northern, Southern, or Eastern Division of the Shire, as y^e List distinguishes them.
